

Cuckoo syndrome

Situation: A young dentist (30) has moved back into his parents' house after he has left university. While he was studying he lived alone in a town far away from his parents' home.

He, his parents and his girlfriend meet to discuss the situation as it has become clear that everyone has his own view of the future.

Role Card: Young Man

- You like your job and earn a lot of money.
- Your job is rather demanding and you have to work long hours.
- Think of reasons why you absolutely want to stay at home.
- Talk about your future plans, especially with regard to your girlfriend.

Your task:

Introduce yourself and your view of the situation by giving a short statement. Then start a discussion aiming at finding a solution that is satisfactory for all people concerned. You are the first one to speak.
